The objections primarily relate to the valuation of the Demerged Undertaking, the consequent Share Entitlement Ratio and the tax implications arising therefrom. The ACIT has, inter alia, questioned the methodology adopted for valuation of the Demerged Undertaking and the weightage assigned to the valuation methodologies, including the DCF method, and has raised concerns regarding the valuation of the Durgapur unit and the assets comprised therein. Petitioner Company and that the same should also be protected. 22. In response to the aforesaid submissions, the First Petitioner Company has undertaken to discharge all dues arising from ongoing tax proceedings, as well as any tax demands raised against it, in accordance with applicable law. It has further undertaken that the sanction of the Scheme shall not prevent the Income Tax Department from examining any tax liability or initiating proceedings for recovery of any dues or tax after sanction of the Scheme, in accordance with law.

23. We have considered the Scheme, the pleadings and documents placed on record, the Reports of the Chairperson, the Report of the Regional Director and the responses thereto, as well as the reports and submissions of the Income Tax Department and the responses and undertakings furnished by the First Petitioner Company. 24. The Income Tax Department shall be at liberty to examine any tax liability arising from the Scheme and, in the event, it is found that the Scheme ultimately results in tax avoidance under the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961, it shall be open to the Income-tax authorities to take necessary action in accordance with law.

25. In view of the foregoing, and upon considering the Scheme of Arrangement between GE Power India Limited, the Demerged Company/First Petitioner Company, and JSW Energy Limited, the Resulting Company/Second Petitioner Company, and their respective shareholders, and having considered the material placed on record, the Reports of the Chairperson and the Regional Director and the responses thereto, the reports and submissions of the Income Tax Department, and the submissions and undertakings furnished by the Petitioner Companies, the Company Scheme Petition bearing C.P.(CAA) No. 118(MB)/2026 in C.A.(CAA) No. 88(MB)/2026 is allowed and the Scheme is hereby sanctioned, subject to the observations, undertakings and directions contained in this Order.
